Thomas Arvid joins Vinings Gallery for Eighth Annual Homecoming Show

Exclusive two-day event on Saturday, Dec.6 from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. & Sunday, Dec. 7 from 1p.m. to 4 p.m

On December 6 and 7, Vinings Gallery will welcome Thomas Arvid home to kick off a special, one-man show. This renowned event marks the eighth annual show at Vinings Gallery for the critically acclaimed, Atlanta-based artist and purveyor of fine living. Arvid's numerous collectors from all over the Southeast and those new to his work will enjoy meeting him, watching him paint and viewing several original works created just for this show.

Arvid's depictions of wine capture the essence of the unpretentious enjoyment of an elegant lifestyle. His work strikes a resounding personal chord among collectors and gallery directors alike. "Thomas' paintings are very seductive and exciting; you just can't take your eyes off of them," says Gary Handler, owner of Vinings Gallery. "Viewers gravitate toward his work, finding moments from their own lives reflected in the images he's created."

After a whirlwind year touring the country and participating in prestigious festivals, such as Pebble Beach Food & Wine, Boston Food & Wine and San Diego Food & Wine, the critically acclaimed Arvid returns to Atlanta to spend the holidays with family and friends. As his career has progressed, Arvid has become recognized as an icon, someone that enthusiasts continue to look to for inspiration and insight. This Atlanta appearance will celebrate a myriad of milestones from the past year and showcase both original works created especially for this event and an assortment of new releases.

The Vinings Gallery events kick off a month-long exhibition and sale of Arvid's work, which will run through December 31, 2008 at the gallery at 4686 South Atlanta Rd, Suite F, Smyrna, Georgia 30080.
